

For racers looking for an even more durable muffler than Flowmaster's aluminized steel offerings, we are excited to introduce our Delta Force 40 Series mufflers in 409S stainless steel. Manufactured entirely in the US from 16 gauge material, these popular race mufflers will fit a variety of drag, road and oval track vehicles, and will be the last mufflers you need to buy for your race car. Please call our technical assistance line at 1-800-544-4761 for more information regarding specific decibel requirements and applications.
