2015 Edition of the Edelbrock's Performance Catalog is Now Available

TORRANCE, CA (February 18, 2015) – Edelbrock LLC, is excited to announce the release of the 2015 Edition of its Automotive Performance Catalog.

"This years catalog features over 190 new products. This year we're excited to expand our popular Total Power Package Top End Kits to include sixteen new applications. These include some of the same combinations we've used on our crate engines for years. They also include unique engine families like the W-Series Chevy, Ford FE, Oldsmobile and Pontiac. Other new products include a new E-Force supercharger system for the 2012-14 Jeep JK's as well as a cylinder head for the popular 4.0L Jeep", states VP of Sales and Marketing, Steve Whipple.

Free Edelbrock catalogs can be ordered in print or on CD. Additionally, Edelbrock will continue to offer their catalog in a media rich format that can be viewed online or with a smart phone/tablet, including all iPhone® and Android® based devices.

Features Include:

- 220 pages of Edelbrock performance parts and accessories
- Available FREE online, in print (#09215) or on CD (#09015)
