

NEW PRODUCT RELEASE

As part of the ever-expanding line of durable, lifetime warranty-backed stainless steel products, Flowmaster's new 815902 3.00" Universal Tailpipe kit offers almost unlimited flexibility on where your exhaust system exits your vehicle making it perfect for truck, van and SUV owners looking to create a custom exhaust system. Featuring four sections of mandrel-bent tubing (total length 12'), the Universal Tailpipe kit allows the builder to create a right, left or rear exit system as desired. If a dual exhaust system is required, two Universal Tailpipe kits can be used in tandem. Like all Flowmaster 409S stainless products, the American-made 815902 features our limited lifetime warranty for long-term quality assurance.
