

21st Annual AETC[®] Attracts Major Sponsorship

Over 30 big-name companies are signed up to sponsor the 2010 AETC[®] for more giveaways, prizes & discounts than ever before

The 21st annual AETC[®] has attracted major sponsorship from industry heavyweights, including title sponsor, Motor State Distributing, and partner in presenting, Performance Racing Industry, both of whom have signed on for the “Circle Track Racing Engine Technology” event.

Other sponsors include COMP Cams, Circle Track Magazine, Engine Masters Magazine, Federal Mogul, Darton Sleeves, ARP, JE Pistons, Flowmaster, Trick Flow, RHS, Manley, Total Seal Piston Rings, Power-Tec, Dart, MSD Ignition, Roush Yates Engines, Diamond Pistons, Granatelli, School of Automotive Machinists, OneDirt.com, Lucas Oil, Lunati, Flatout Gaskets, Quarter Master, Redline Motorsports, TCI, Mr. Gasket, Performance Distributors and Holley.

With so many major sponsors onboard, the 2010 AETC[®] will have more attendee handouts, discounts, prizes and loaded giveaway bags than ever before. In excess of $30,000 worth of free performance engine parts and AETC[®]-exclusive discounts will be given away. With attendance capped at 300 attendees, the possibility of winning is very high.

Along with the list well-known sponsors, some of the biggest names in the industry will be speaking during the conference. Attendees will gain priceless knowledge as these presenters share their secret industry tips and tricks.

Not a circle track fan? Don't let that stop you from coming. The technology to be presented will bridge all makes, manufacturers and types of racing. The topics discussed can be applied to virtually any engine platform or type of racing. Miss this one event, and you will spend the rest of your life trying to catch up!

The 21st annual Advanced Engineering Technology Conference[™] will be held at the Orange County Convention Center in Orlando, Florida, on December 6-8, 2010.

The early registration discount is still available, but time is running out. Register before June 1, 2010, to save $200.00 off the cost of registration. Registration also includes free admission to the “Trade Only” PRI show that will take place on the three days following the AETC[™], December 9-11, at the Orange County Convention Center. Space is limited and registration is filling up, so reserve your ticket today to ensure your spot at this “can't miss” event.
