

Inglese™ Chrome Dress-Up Plate

Protect your investment and improve the overall appearance of your custom Inglese™ Induction System

Dress-up and protect your carburetors with an Inglese™ Chrome Dress-Up Plate. This beautiful chrome piece adds the finishing touch to one of the most visible parts of your induction system, while at the same time covering and protecting vital carburetor areas from excessive dirt and debris.

The easy-to-install piece perfectly complements all two-barrel IDF Inglese™ Weber carburetors and stacks. The Chrome Dress-Up Plate mounts between the carburetor and stacks, covering and protecting the carburetor while adding a stylish flair. Perfect for show cars or anyone who wants to add a little more polish to their IDF carburetors, the Chrome Dress-Up Plate is classic yet functional.
