

M2 Machines Releases 1:64-Scale Lunati® Bootlegger Auto Haulers

Hidden Location, MS – Another batch of 1:64-scale die cast vehicles branded with the Lunati® Bootlegger logo are hitting the shelves.

M2 Machines has added two versions of a 1958 Chevrolet Spartan LCF with 1957 Chevrolet Bel Air inside to its Auto Hauler series. Both versions are matte black, with one featuring the Lunati® Bootlegger logo and motto, “The difference between an ‘outlaw’ and a ‘criminal’ often comes down to who gets caught,” in yellow. The limited production chase version — only 500 worldwide — has the logo and motto in gloss black.

As with previous Lunati releases from M2 Machines, each auto hauler is a highly detailed replica. They each feature die cast bodies with separate headlights, taillights and hood ornaments. They also have rubber tires and a removable die cast chassis, along with an included display base and acrylic case. All come in a wood grain package, just like the Lunati Bootlegger camshafts.

The 1:64-scale auto haulers are available from major retailers and toy stores, including Walmart, Target and Toys“R”Us, as well as hobby shops and online retailers such as Amazon.com.
